YOUTH SWEEPSTAKES

18-24 Month Dog

- 1st Sarea Sheik My World Sahdiq, CGN
Owners: Kim Fountain & Theresa Martin

A smooth-bodied grizzle with a very pleasant head and excellent underline. Moved a bit close behind, but had nice side gait. Even with competition, he would have been at the top.

VETERAN SWEEPSTAKES

7 to 10 Year Dog

- 1st Ch. Windstorm a Sandchris Rhapsody
Owners: Sandra & Larry Gahan and Randy & Starr White

Sound and balanced with correct spring of rib and depth of body. Good mover with lovely old type, especially head-piece.

10 to 12 Year Dog

- 1st Ch. Khamsin's Sirocco el Marrakech
Owner: James H. Petru

Another cream with classic old type, well balanced fore and aft. Acted a bit sore in front while gaiting, likely feeling his age a bit this morning.

12+ Year Dog

- 1st Ch. Azad Bhariiqah Ibn Ardiinah, CGN
Owners: Janice & Alison Preiss

Good shoulder layback with lovely bladed bone.

7 to 10 Year Bitch

- 1st Ch. Sandstorm Overcast Skies
Owner: Kathleen M. Morton

Grizzle with nice underjaw and pleasant head. Smooth shoulder assembly, laid back and well set in.

- 2nd Ch. Baghdad Jewel O Redalika
Owner: Ellen Hoscheit

Cream bitch with beautiful side gait and strong topline.

10 to 12 Year Bitch

1st Ch. Shalom Annie's Song

Owners: Jack & MaryJane Helder | Agent: Alison Preiss

Another grizzle, very sound for her age with good side gait. Smooth shoulders with a good underline.

2nd Ch. Lorrequer Kharyder

Breeder: Linda Hawkyard

A fairly moderate dog with nice shoulders, good balance and lovely type. Not as free moving as my first place dog.

3rd Ch. Khamsin's Burak el Marrakech

Breeders: Susan Konopa, James Petru and B.&K. Miller

I loved this dog's classic old type, very smooth and balanced. A bit loose in the topline compared to my second-place dog, but on another day could have won the class. His best attribute was the little kisses he offered me!

BREEDER SWEEPSTAKES

Dogs

1st Karob Parmenides at Elea

Breeders: Robert & Karen Frost

Black grizzle with a classic head – good balance of back skull to foreface. Very sound coming and going with effortless, cadenced side gait. Smooth bodied with correct fill and good spring of rib.

4th Karob King Croesus of Lydia

Breeders: Brandon & Robert Frost

The most refined of the group with a lovely headpiece, but a bit straighter in the upper arm than the other three dogs. Acted as though he would rather be on the couch, than in the ring!

Bitches

1st Ch. Sandstorm Song of the Phoenix

Breeder: Kathleen M. Morton

Petite deer grizzle with a lovely head, deep muzzle. Great underline with correct fill in front, good coming and going with pretty side gait.

2nd Lorrequer Kalarya

Breeder: Linda Hawkyard

Loved this bitch's classic English type. Good balance to head, very smooth bodied with correctly set in shoulders. Didn't want to show as well as my first-place bitch, but she could easily switch places on another day.

3rd Ch. Khamsins Bedawi el Marrakech

Breeders: Susan Konopa, James Petru and B.&K. Miller

I immediately liked this bitch. Very balanced grizzle smooth with a pretty head and expression. Sound coming and going, her front was not quite as well set as the first two bitches, but I am being picky here!

4th Ch. Unmistakably Windstorm

Breeders: Randy & Starr White

The most refined bitch of the group, but sound coming and going with good bladed bone. Shoulder blades not as flat/laid back as her competition.

Best Breeders Sweeps

Ch. Sandstorm Song of the Phoenix

The choice was a difficult one, as both dog and bitch were deserving of the nod. Though completely different in breed type, they were very similar in their faults and virtues. Both were very sound with good heads and lovely side gait – light and effortless. The male wanted to pull his head up and back to look at his handler, which tightened his shoulders a bit and broke his topline behind the shoulder blade.

I would like to thank the Saluki Club of Canada and the Kilbride Kennel Club for this moment, as judges rarely do, to have the opportunity to be able to judge our own breed and see and touch, in this case as many Salukis as we can in one afternoon. The quality of many was great. I enjoyed the conditions they were shown in, the way they were shown and also the people who showed them. We who have Salukis are blessed with the enormous responsibility of giving them the care they need to make them the best companions we may have. Life will never see me without one as I cross the threshold of my home, what a wonderful picture!! I am sure you all agree with me – continue the quality of our breed and the caring we have put into breeding and having the best breed there is.

THE ELANA TROPHY

in memory of Nell Hyde, Elana Salukis for Top Show/Lure Coursing Saluki

Nell Hyde was a Saluki owner, breeder and exhibitor for 35 years. Versatility was important to Nell, and she both showed and lure coursed her dogs with great success. This trophy recognizes the Saluki that has proven conformation to the breed standard and superiority in the lure coursing field during the year.

Bob Boxma was proud to present the Elana Trophy to our winner for 2009:
